Summary

As an IT enthusiast at the University of Sri Jayewardenepura, I'm passionate about exploring machine learning, web development, and cybersecurity. With hands-on projects like a Laptop Price Predictor and a Voice Recognition system, I strive to leverage technology to solve complex problems. Additionally, I find joy in participating in Capture The Flag (CTF) competitions, where problem-solving becomes exhilarating fun. My dedication lies in mastering the intersection of cybersecurity and machine learning to contribute to a safer, more innovative digital landscape.
